Travel Fees

Travel cost is generally estimated within the total cost, however, an additional travel fee may be required. Prices may vary depending on distance, commute time and will be included in the total cost of the invoiced amount.

Additional Time

We will always do our best to complete as many guests as we can during the allotted/ contracted time frame. However, if additional guests remain near the end of the contracted time, event hosts can add additional time to your contract (based on artist availability). Adjustment times contracts will be calculated in 15 min increments (rates will vary- please see contract for amount).

Client Responsibility

The Glitter Fairy Godmother needs an acceptable work area that includes a workable space, table, chairs, weather protection, and lighting equipment if necessary. Additional set-up time beyond the artist's needs is considered additional and will be added to the contracted amount.
